

Using Google Book Search to Find, Search, and Read Books Online

Google has digitized books in the public domain, out of copyright, or with publishers' permission. Many books are just previews, but full text books are also available.

Go to the Google Book Search web site: www.books.google.com.

The online book will appear. Use the icons at the top to zoom out, zoom in, switch from one page to two page view, grab and drag a page, select a section of a page, and switch to full page view.

From the menu at the right, you can choose to Download the book to burn to a CD or DVD or to View plain text, useful if the book's font is archaic and hard to read. An example is shown below...

Use Google Books to read Shakespeare, Mark Twain, Winesburg, Ohio, The Red Badge of Courage, The Heart of Darkness, Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Animal Farm, The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, The Scarlet Letter, and many others.
